

Equity Trader

Short term trading ideas

About

Central Research is the research arm of Central Markets (London) Limited. We provide real time analysis and recommendations across equity and foreign exchange markets.

The Product

Equity Trader is aimed at traders and investors looking to take advantage of price movement over the short to medium term. Our analysis covers multiple time frames and uses a variety of technical indicators in order to try and identify high probability trade recommendations to both the professional and retail market.

The Package

The real value in our service comes from the premium content. As a subscriber to Equity Trader you will receive the following content:

- Daily Ideas (including 4 potential opportunities)
- Trade Recommendations
 - ✓ Single Stocks
 - ✓ Index Trades
 - ✓ Pairs Trades
- Access to the trades in our discretionary equity model
- Strategy Weekly
- Access to premium content from our Twitter feed

This package also comes with the standard research package that is available to all clients and prospects. This includes:

- Morning Report (Daily)
- Economic Calendar (Daily)
- Daily Market Commentary (Daily)
- Monthly Market Report (Monthly)
- Special Reports (Bi-Monthly)

The Delivery

Subscribers can receive the content through a variety of mediums. As research is time sensitive it can be delivered to the recipient wherever they may be. The research will be delivered via email, text message and Twitter. Subscribers will also have access to the information online through a secure login to our 'Members Area'.

Important Information: Risk Warnings
